Monthly Members Power Our Work for Writers and Community-Engaged Writing

Can you become a monthly member today?

Your $15, $25, or $50 monthly membership gives us the support we can count on to build our residency program and advance our work for community-engaged writing.

By giving a little each month, you ensure Historic Joy Kogawa House can do a lot to serve writers, artists, and other cultural groups who face practical issues in our community: a lack of affordable workspace for writers; the need for living wages for artists; and through cross-sectoral partnerships and readings, the need for connection among citizens.
